and

Prepare now for times in the future when you may need help

Be in control
Safeguard your wellbeing

It's common sense

ALLIED SERVICES TRUST

THINK

You might need help to make decisions about your financial and welfare matters at any age.

BEWARE

Your Next of Kin does not have an automatic legal right to assist you should you need help.

IMPORTANT

If you are not prepared for possible mental incapacity you are at risk of losing control over your financial and welfare decisions.

ACTION

You must decide and prepare in advance who will help you, how they will help you and when they will help you.

VITAL

Your instructions must be detailed in a legally binding document called a Lasting Power of Attorney in England and Wales.

SURETY

Lasting Powers of Attorney must be registered with the Office of the Public Guardian before they can be used.
